“A lawyer’s time and advice are his stock in trade.” These words, voiced 250 years ago by a famous American lawyer, Abraham Lincoln, resonate even more so today, when any constitutional dilettante with a blog and an opinion can dole out “advice” with one click of a mouse. The local attorneys listed on these pages—the top vote-getters in our annual Awesome Attorneys readers’ poll on SouthJersey.com—take Lincoln’s words and example to heart. When you need good counsel in South Jersey, count on their time, their advice—their stock in trade.
